REUNITED!

An all-inclusive Château Sejour in Provence

As restrictions begin to lift, socialising and travel turn into a possibility rather than just a memory and a dream. And we all long for family and friends reunions, hugs, laughter and adventure.

We invite you to five days of togetherness in the most spectacular of settings, Château de Beauregard in Provence. With complete privacy and a great offering of personalised planned activities, excursions and feasts right there within its historic stone walls. All with your health, safety and comfort in mind.

We plan and organise, you focus on time with your family and friends.

The Reunited! package includes:

- Transfer to and from Marseille Airport*
- Four nights of accommodation in deluxe bedrooms and five days at Château de Beauregard with exclusive use of the Château and its facilities
- Three exquisite meals per day prepared and cooked for you by your personal chef, using local fresh produce**
- Daily afternoon tea with cakes
- A range of leisure activities at the Château within its six hectares of private gardens. Examples are swimming in the pool, horse-riding, tennis, cycling and visiting surrounding vineyards, hiking, films in the Château cinema, playing the grand piano, billiards, relaxing with cocktails on the pool terrace or water-colour painting.
- Organised excursions on Day Two and Three; one to the ancient Roman aqueduct Pont du Gard, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one to the city of Avignon with your personal local guide
- A hike or cycle up to Mont Ventoux or its beautiful foothills with a picnic lunch provided by the Château chef
- A private wine-tasting at the Château or at one of the famous local wine estates
- Morning house-keeping of the bedrooms

The Château team is also happy to consider any special wishes you have and can suggest many more activities for you.
